Special Events and Weddings

A Welcome Reception

RELAX AND UNWIND

Take a stool, a tartan booth, or a bench in front of our roaring fire for drinks, coffee or food. Your canine companions are more than welcome to join you here too!

Our Reception area seats approximately 20 guests at separate tables

A Well-Stocked Bar

REVELRY AND MERRIMENT

Enjoy a tippie or two from our ample array of gins - local and not so local! - or sample our real ales or vast whisky collection.

If you fancy something softer, we also have a collection of botanically-brewed Fentiman's drinks

Tailor-made wine lists and cocktail menus are available for events upon pre-request

The Bews Room

A MORE FORMAL SETTING

White-panelled, exposed stone walls and ancient old beams with a flickering open fire

Wind down with a coffee or a drink on our cushy Chesterfields in front of our open fire while your friends compete with a round of pool or darts in the adjoining room

Our 100 year-old antique pool table - free to play although donations to our charity of choice are welcome! - can also be converted into and set as a formal dining table to seat a maximum of 8 persons

Please enquire for our exclusive use rate for this room

The Dining Room

With its olde worlde features, crackling fire and statement antiques dotted here and there, our Dining Room is our largest and most impressive public area.

The Dining Room is regularly transformed for private and public events, and can accommodate large parties of up to 14 persons looking for a table to themselves, or the entire room can be reserved privately to host up to 60 seated guests day or night.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights are especially busy at the inn, please contact us to enquire after our fee to reserve this room exclusively

The Conservatory

By day, our bright and airy Conservatory hosts our 'Hungry Hare' luncheon menu Wednesday-Saturday, but this ample space can also be reserved day or night to accommodate up to 40 standing guests, or up to 25 seated guests for lunch or dinner.

The fold-out doors are regularly opened when the sun is shining to spill out onto our patio area

Please enquire for our private hire cost for our Conservatory
